

Violent Turns: Sources, Interpretations, Responses

21-23, 2023

A

Organized by the George & Irina Schaeffer Center for the Study of Genocide, Human Rights and Conflict Prevention and the Center for Critical Democracy Studies

The George and Irina Schaeffer Center for the Study of Genocide, Human Rights, and Conflict Prevention promotes innovative research, curricula, and pedagogies, in the hopes of reaching a deeper understanding of the causes and consequences of genocide and mass violence.

The American University of Paris is one of the first in France to house the USC Shoah Foundation's complete Visual History Archive, which contains over 55,000 testimonies from survivors and witnesses of genocide and mass violence, including the Shoah, as well as the Armenian and Tutsi genocide. Since 2019, the Center also has access to the Fortunoff Archive for Holocaust Testimonies. The University is making these important resources available to researchers, teachers and students, in their investigation and dissemination of new insights into the origins and aftereffects of collective hatred, fundamentalist ideologies, discrimination, and mass violence, in historical, social and individual memory.

Our goal is so foster scholarly discussion, here and abroad, with conferences, lect

The Center for Critical Democracy Studies (CCDS) promotes the practice, study and life of democracy both within and beyond the University. The Center builds on AUP's mission to educate global citizens by exploring fundamental and practical questions of emancipatory political life through major grants; sponsorship of courses; lectures and conferences; and the publication of scholarly journals.

Every year the Center hosts lectures and seminars on subjects relating to the study and practice of democracy. Notable past events have included the
